

URGE GREATER PRODUCTION

The man who woke up the next morning after the tariff bill was signed expecting to see the cost of living marked away down to the good old times again, was sorely disappointed. He will have to wait till the hens lay two eggs a day, the cows give double the amount of butter fat, the potato hills produce two tubers where one grew before, the live stock industry get back to the proportions it was when beef was 10 cents per pound, and the production of all other foodstuffs doubled before he can reasonably expect the cost of living to be lowered enough so that it need not be ashamed to look a hard working honest man in the face. The new tariff may reduce the cost of wearing apparel and other things useful and ornamental, but to reduce the high cost of meat and potatoes and butter and eggs the American people must look to another source, and that is News.

WHITE BRONZE

Is manufactured in all grades from a four dollar marker to large public monuments. Its color is gray, somewhat similar to frosted silver. Moss-growth is an impossibility. All letters are raised, not sunken. Future inscriptions can easily be added. You get a far handsomer design for your money than you get in stone. Sold by Thomas Allsop, Smithfield, Utah—Advertisement.

The Latest Adder Costs But $35 See our exhibit—ask for 10 days' trial

Here is a new price on a competent Adder. On a machine that is rapid, full size and infallible. The very latest machine, built by men who know, in one of the largest metal working shops.

It is an individual Adder, to be placed on one's desk, close to one's books and papers. To take the place of the central machine requiring skilled operators.

It is also intended for offices and stores where costly machines are a luxury.

The price is due to utter simplicity, and to our enormous output. Seven keys do all the work.

Each copied number is shown up for checking before the addition is made.

With very slight practice anyone can compute a hundred figures a minute. And the machine never makes mistakes.

Countless offices, large and small, are getting from these machines the highest class of service.

FOREIGN CLOTH MAKER GETS IT

English Prices Increased By Just the Amount of the Reduction in the Tariff Here

The contention of free traders has always been that customs duties entered largely, indeed was the most important factor, in the high cost of living. When Mr. Underwood spoke for the revenue tariff measure which bears his name he warned his associates in congress that there would be no immediate reduction in living costs. Mr. Underwood did not believe it to be good politics to claim the tariff was the one great reason for advanced prices in those commodities which enter most largely into the daily expense of the housekeeper. Wool is now free, and the duties on woolen goods are lower than ever in the history of the country. According to the preachments of the free trader there should be radical reductions in the selling price of woolen goods. Is this the case?

Interviews with local dealers in woolen clothing do not encourage the promise of lower prices. A tailor who uses in his business a large volume of imported cloths is authority for the statement that the foreign manufacturers have increased their prices by just the amount of the reduction in the tariff. Old human equation is at work. The expected profit of the revenue tariff is absorbed by the foreign manufacturer. The wearer of the suit of clothes pays the same as usual.

In ready to wear lines the word is that no material reductions may be expected. It appears that, in the medium grades of woolen cloths American manufacturers have long since reached the degree of expertness formerly held by the foreign manufacturer. It is only in special grades, the product of technical expertness and laborious handwork, that the foreign manufacturer excels. In these lines there has never been real competition and the foreigner absorbs for himself the reduction in duty.

It may be possible time will demonstrate that the duties on wool and woolen goods have affected the cost to the consumer. The new law has not had a fair trial. Present indications do not justify the claim that clothing will be cheaper because of the substitution of a revenue tariff for a protective tariff. —Johnstown Tribune.

HARRY HODGKINS A SUICIDE

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 14.—G. Harry Hodgkins, a well known sporting man and prize-winning official committed suicide by shooting today.

WIRELESS CONFESSIONS

Usual Terms for Protection Were Ten Per Cent of Swindles and A Monthly Retainer of $2500.

New York Nov. 15.—District Atty. Whitman confirmed today the report that he had obtained from a gang of wireless tappers confessions involving the payment of graft for police protection to a civilian in high authority at police headquarters a police inspector and at least two lieutenants. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars Mr. Whitman said had been obtained by the swindlers under police protection. Ten per cent of this sum and a fixed retainer of $2500 a month according to the confessions had been divided among the police officials.

George McRae confessor-in-chief of the gang of five who have bared their records to Mr. Whitman is authority for the statement that a Chicago woman whose identity is known to the district attorney was fleeced out of $4000 during several months by the gang in this city and that the police received ten per cent of this sum.

More Startling Revelations Still more startling revelations are expected today in the confession of two other wire-tappers who have indicated their willingness to tell the district attorney all they know about money being paid for police protection.

According to the story told by McRae and his confederates the police were notified by the gang in advance whenever a deal was on. Giving names and dates, McRae told the district attorney that the police would station a man outside the building to which the victim was taken and that after the wire-tappers had got his money, payment of the ten per cent commission was made immediately to the police representative waiting outside. This McRae charged, was taken to the office of a police inspector and either retained entirely by him or divided with his superiors. In addition the wire-tappers, McRae said, paid a man at police headquarters a monthly retainer of $2500.

McRae's confession and the resultant revelations are the outgrowth of an accidental meeting in Los Angeles last September between McRae and a representative of the district attorney's office who was in that city on another case.

USELESS AS A SUBSIDY

Representative Underwood, who has been the House leader in the passage of the new Democratic tariff bill, is not inclined to favor the repealing of the clause which concerns the granting of an additional reduction of 5 per cent on goods which are imported in American vessels. He opposes it because he considers it is an attempt to do something for the shipping of the country.

It is the feeble effort which has been made in that direction which is the cause of the desire for the removal of the provision. Just how much of a bungling job has been done on this part of the new bill is indicated by the fact that the putting into force of this subsidy clause virtually means the granting of an additional 5 per cent reduction in duty on all goods. Mr. Underwood has stood for the adoption of the bill as it left the House and for low rates, but it is a strange attitude which would provide an opening for lowering the rates on all goods without obtaining the desired aid to shipping.

When it was hoped to appease the demands of the subsidy advocates by admitting goods in American ships at a reduced duty there was no mention made of countries protected by treaties. In its final passage, however, it was amended so that no country having a treaty would be affected. Inasmuch as practically all countries have treaties or can claim exemption under favored nation treatment, the intent of the clause to help shipping is lost. It is a situation which even Mr. Underwood should desire to remedy. —Norwich Bulletin.

HARDLY ONE SQUARE MEAL

The clothing manufacturers of Chicago have figured it out that fifty cents will be the maximum reduction on a man's suit of clothes as the result of the tariff the Democrats passed to cheapen the cost of living. With the price of meats going up, the saving on a suit of clothes will hardly represent one square meal for the workman.—Camden Post Telegram.

LIEUT. PERRY RICH KILLED IN FLIGHT OVER MANILA BAY

Manila, Nov. 15.—Second Lieut. C. Perry Rich, of the Philippine scouts U. S. A. was killed today in a fall with a hydro-aeroplane into Manila bay.

Lieut. Rich, who was the only member of the Philippine scouts attached to the aviation corps here, was encircling the Asiatic fleet, which was at anchor in the bay, when the accident occurred. The launch from the torpedo boat Decatur was the first of his fall. His body was picked up with life almost extinct, but it was too late to save him.

The accident was due to a faulty cylinder in the motor. Lieut. Rich discovered the defect before he left the ground and at first decided to abandon his flight, but he afterward repaired the cylinder and ascended. He had risen 200 feet and was making a preparatory trip around the fleet before starting on his intended flight over the vessels during which he was to attempt to drop a bomb on one of them when his motor broke down again.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Lieut. Rich was born in Indiana in 1883, and was appointed to the Philippine scouts in 1911. He is the eleventh aviator to die in the work of the army and navy. In aviation accidents of all kinds, the death toll for the present year to date being 195.
